CHINATOWN AND BEYOND: TRANSFORMING OUR CITY AFTER THE APOLOGY

FREE!

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4 AT 7P.M.
ALICE MACKAY ROOM, CENTRAL LIBRARY
350 WEST GEORGIA STREET

In April 2018, Mayor Gregor Robertson delivered a formal apology for past discrimination against people of Chinese descent, followed by City Council adopting a set of recommended legacy actions. With these commitments in mind, join Sarah Ling (CCHSBC President), Melody Ma (#SaveChinatownYVR) and Wendy Au (Consultant, City of Vancouver Chinatown Initiative) for a provocative discussion on what has happened in Chinatown since the apology, and how we can transform our city.
